Frequently Asked Questions

Does my child need to know how to play water polo? Splash Ball has been setup specifically for those children that are beginner to water polo and the want to learn. We will have water polo trained coaches that will do the teaching and explain all aspects of water polo and some swim stroke techniques.

What gender is available to play? Any boy or girl are welcome to register with Splash Ball. The required age is 5 to 9 years of age.

Is Water Polo a rough sport to play; especially for young children? The Splash Ball program has been designed and structured as a NO CONTACT program. This will allow new athletes to experience a new sport and learn to have fun playing water polo.

What is the cost and what do we get? The cost is $150 per athlete which includes 7 weeks of water polo. There are two practices per week and 5 games on Sunday. You will get great coaches, fun players to play with, a t-shirt, and hopefully a team that brings snacks. Because we all know at ages 5 to 9 – sports is really about the after game snacks.

How do I pay to signup? You will be signing up online at www.irvinewaterpolo.org. Our credit card processing will be done by Priority Services Group.

Can I pay by check? If necessary, we can make arrangements to take checks. Please send email request to splashball@prioritysg.com .

What if I have an older child that would like to try and play water polo? Please send an email to splashball@prioritysg.com and we will send you the information to the closest facility and organization. There are many teams in the area that can teach your older child to play and have fun with water polo.

What should I bring to practice / games? Please bring a great enthusiasm and excitement along with a swim suit and towel. A speedo type swim suit or jam swim suit would be best for boys; and a full piece swim suit for girls.

How do I get more information on Splash Ball or Water Polo? Please send email to splashball@prioritysg.com.
